

June 24, 2016

To Whom It May Concern,

Casheema Omowabi was a student of mine in the Spring of 2016 in ECE 250 Supervision and Administration of Early Childhood Programs and received a A in the class and had perfect attendance.

Casheema was a pleasure to have in class and always would contribute in class discussions and groups. She was a very professional and dedicated student, hard worker, would ask questions to help clarify, and always took advantage of extra credit assignments. Also, I could tell by her presentations in class and the quality of her work that she takes great pride in doing well in class.

I would recommend Casheema for any job knowing she is eager to learn and committed to presenting herself and her work in a quality and professional manner. Please contact me if you would like more information at 708-764-0736.

Gail Shelton

Adjunct Instructor at Triton College